Since graduating from Miami University in 2007, Josh has acquired extensive sales and marketing experience enabling him to align his strengths with commercial real estate brokerage. Having worked in the property management, medical sales, non-profit and the business development fields, Josh came to OnSite Retail Group with an excellent skill set for growing and developing his real estate acumen and providing the highest level of service to his clients.

In joining the OnSite team, he has grown the company’s listings which now exceed 1,000,000 square feet of retail space and has gained experience with nearly every retail property type in a wide variety of activity ranging from retail leasing, sale transactions, lease terminations, subleases, ground leases and tenant representation and has continued to focus his endeavors in the representation of retail property owners and landlords. Furthermore, he has acquired valuable experience and is adept in the marketing and leasing of ground-up developments such as the high-profile “Streets of West Chester,” “The District at Deerfield,” “Crossings of Beckett,” and the prestigious “Bishop Square” at Miami University.

His focus on retail property listings in and around Cincinnati, Northern Kentucky, Dayton and Columbus, makes Josh prepared and eager to execute sales and leasing assignments to meet and exceed his clients' expectations.
